Thursday 27th to Monday 31st May, 2027

The Original Tour: Gaucin, Ronda, Córdoba and Málaga

Córdoba Great Mosque interior

This is a wonderful opportunity to see Andalucía, including a typical 'white village' with the most outstanding mountain views and over twenty international artists' studios; spectacular Ronda, with its medieval quarter and famous bullring, stunning Córdoba, the medieval capital of Al-Andalus under the Umayyad emirs and caliphs; and the beautiful old town of Málaga, with its Roman and Islamic heritage, its restaurants and its remarkable variety of galleries and museums. Tutors from Art & Culture Andalucía will provide guidance full of knowledge and enthusiasm, as well as knowing where to eat and where to stay.

Join us for an uplifting early summer break in beautiful Andalucía.

"The purpose of art is washing the dust of daily life off our souls."

Thursday 27th May

Meet at Málaga airport at 2pm, for transfer to the beautiful mountain village of Gaucín

In the pueblo blanco (white village) of Gaucín, in the Serranía de Ronda, we provide gorgeous villa and hotel accommodation for the first two nights of your exploration of Andalucían culture. The village is home to more than twenty international artists' studios, and you arrive during Art Gaucin Open Studios. This is a once yearly celebration of all the artists of the village and one or two guest artists. The views of distant Gibraltar and the Straits, and of the Rif mountains in Morocco are spectacular. The climate in May is perfect, warm, and sunny, but not yet the full heat of summer. After two nights in Gaucin, the last three days are spent in Ronda, Córdoba and Málaga.

Gaucín Village, Serranía de Ronda

After settling in, there will be an introductory talk at our villa, followed by a one-hour presentation entitled 'Moorish Architecture: The Legacy of a Vanished Kingdom'. Then, after aperitifs at 8 o'clock, the evening meal will be al fresco, if it's warm enough.

Friday 28th May

After breakfast at our villa there will be a one-hour presentation, "Picasso, the Boy from Málaga" followed by coffee or mint tea. Next will be a one-hour presentation entitled 'Experiencing and Understanding the Great Mosque of Córdoba'. Following a leisurely lunch in the garden, you will then begin your tour of galleries with a map and a guide, after which we will have aperitifs on the terrace, followed by an evening meal in one of the village restaurants.

Saturday 29th May

After an early breakfast at the villa, we will leave for Ronda by coach at 9am. On arrival at 10am, there will be a visit to Ronda Cathedral and Old Quarter, with a coffee break. Next is a guided visit to Ronda Bullring, the oldest stone-built bullring in Spain. Following that there is a guided visit to the Medieval Moorish Baths, the best preserved on the entire peninsula.

Following lunch in Ronda, we will take the coach to Córdoba, where we will check in to our boutique hotel.

At 7pm we will meet for sunset drinks, following which we will enjoy a meal at a restaurant in the old medieval town.

Ronda: the 'New' Bridge over the River Tajo

Sunday 30th May

Following breakfast, we visit the museum dedicated to Julio Romero de Torres, a painter who was a native of Córdoba. After a leisurely lunch we visit Córdoba Great Mosque, for a tour with detailed notes and an exploration of this World Heritage Site, considered by many to be the most beautiful mosque in the world. After visiting the mosque, we will go for a walk around the nearby Alcazar Palace and Gardens, You then have a free evening to explore Córdoba's medieval quarter and its many restaurants.

Monday 31st May

On Friday morning, after breakfast, we leave for Málaga at 9 o'clock. On arrival we stop for coffee, before a guided tour of the Alcazaba Moorish fortress. This will be followed by a light lunch, and then at 3pm we have a locally guided visit to the Picasso Museum. At 5pm we will meet the coach and travel to the airport. We recommend flights anytime from 7.30pm onwards.
