The Jerez-Seville-Granada Course
for ArtACTours – Itinerary

Patio de las Doncellas, Real Alcazar of Seville

This course in Andalucía includes guided visits to historic Jerez, Seville and Granada. Tutors from Art & Culture Andalucía will provide guidance full of knowledge and enthusiasm. You need make no more decisions than you want to – we know just what to see, where to eat and how best to travel around.

Jerez is famous for its Moorish Alcazar and its sherry bodegas. There we will taste vintage sherries at our favourite bodega, which has its own art gallery. Seville was the medieval capital of both the Almoravid Muslims and the resurgent Catholic Kings. We will visit the Giralda bell-tower, formerly the minaret of the Great Mosque, and the spectacular Alcazar palace and gardens, where King Pedro I built his Christian palace in the Moorish style. We will also tour the Museo de Bellas Artes, with its outstanding collection of Spanish paintings.

Finally, we will visit the world-renowned Alhambra fortress-palace in Granada, the last stronghold of the Moors before their defeat by the Catholic Monarchs, Ferdinand and Isabelle, in 1492.

Join us for an uplifting early summer break in beautiful Andalucía.

“The purpose of art is washing the dust of daily life off our souls.”

Thursday 1st June

14.00. Meet at Malaga airport for coach transfer to the villa in Gaucin. This beautiful pueblo blanco (white village) is perched at the southern end of the Serranía de Ronda mountain range, with stunning views down the Genal valley, all the way to Gibraltar, the Straits and the Rif mountains of Morocco. It is home to more than twenty artists' studios – for reasons that will become obvious when you see the scenery and the light.

After time to settle in, there is an introduction to the course and a presentation on 'The Giralda and the Alcazar of Seville'. This is followed by a seated meal al fresco on the terrace.

Bodegas Tradición Art Gallery

Friday 2nd June

After breakfast, the morning is devoted to two presentations designed to prepare you for museum and monument visits later in the week. The first is on 'Spanish Golden Age Paintings'. After a break for mint tea or coffee, the second presentation is on 'The Alhambra of Granada'.

Following lunch al fresco on the terrace, there is some time for relaxation, after which we will explore Art Gaucin, the annual Open Studios of Gaucin. You will have a map and a choice of around 25 different studios to visit at your leisure. We then take evening drinks and tapas on the terrace.

Saturday 3rd June

After breakfast we leave by coach for Jerez de la Frontera (coffee break halfway), where we will visit the Alcazar fortress-palace, with its intact family mosque and Moorish baths. Next we enjoy an early-afternoon sherry-tasting with tapas at the Bodegas Tradicion, followed by an exploration of their impressive in-house art gallery. We then take a short coach journey to Seville, check into our hotel and freshen up before a visit to Seville's Museo de Bellas Artes

After that you enjoy a free evening to explore the delights of Seville's restaurants.

Sunday 4th June

Breakfast is followed by a guided visit to the Cathedral, the largest Catholic Cathedral in Europe, with its famous Giralda bell tower, formerly a minaret, and the impressive, decorated bronze doors preserved from the earlier great mosque. We then visit the Alcazar palace and gardens. Built over many centuries, this site contains traces of early Almohad palace architecture, Pedro I's spectacular 'mudejar' palace, and later Renaissance and Baroque additions built following the reconquest of Spain by the 'Catholic Monarchs'. The extensive adjoining gardens are amongst the most beautiful you will find anywhere in Spain.

The Alhambra, Granada, under a full moon

After lunch we take the coach to Granada, through spectacular Andalucian scenery, with a coffee-break halfway. After checking in to the hotel you will have a free evening to explore the old town and its many delightful restaurants.

Monday 5th June

After breakfast we visit the breath-taking Alhambra palace-fortress and adjacent Generalife summer-palace and gardens. This will include a guided tour of the Nasrid palace-complex, with its Patio de los Leones and many other examples of the most exquisite interior architecture you will see anywhere in the world. The elaborate stucco décor and the gravity-defying muqarnas ceilings are unforgettable. From there we walk through to the Generalife gardens and summer palace.

We then take the coach across to the Albaicín, the old gypsy quarter, where we enjoy a final leisurely lunch in a spectacular restaurant, just below Plaza San Nicolas, with impressive views back across the valley of the river Darro to the Alhambra and Generalife

Shortly after four o'clock we board the coach for our final journey to Malaga airport, where we will arrive by six o'clock and say our end of course farewells, in good time for you to catch your flights home.
